MRS HB PUNANI, AGP for Respondent No. 1-3
RULE SERVED for Respondent No. 1-2

-----
CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE R.P.DHOLAKIA

Date of decision: 29/09/2004

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner has been detained under the provisions of Gujarat Prevention of Anti-Social Activities Act, 1985 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act of 1985') by the order dated 15-4-2004 passed by the District Magistrate, Banaskantha at Palanpur and he has been declared as bootlegger.

2. It is now well settled that unless the activities of a person as bootlegger has disturbed the maintenance of public order, he cannot be detained under the Act. Reliance is placed on a decision of the case of Piyush Kantilal Mehta Vs. Commissioner of Police, Ahmedabad & Ors. reported in AIR 1989 SC 491.

3. Heard learned advocate for the petitioner and the learned AGP for the State. Also perused the record. Learned advocate for the petitioner has submitted that only a single offence has been registered against the detenu being Palanpur Taluka Prohibition C.R.No.77/2004 dated 12-4-2004. Drawing my attention towards last two lines of para 2 (Annexure-C) of the compilation, it is contented that when the order of detention was passed, the detenu was in police custody which aspect ought to have been considered by the authority while passing the detention order. In this connection, learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn my attention towards the case of Amritlal and Others Vs. Union Govt. Through Secy., Ministry of Finance and Others, 2001 SCC (Cri) 147 wherein it was held at Head note as under:

"Preventive Detention--Detention order-Subjective satisfaction--Detenu already in jail-Detaining authority must be satisfied on the basis of available cogent material about likelihood of the detenu being released on bail and not merely about likelihood of his moving application for bail--In absence of such satisfaction detention order cannot be sustained--Prevention of Illicit Traffic in Narcotic drugs and Psychotropic Substances act, 1988, S.3(1)"

4. It seems that there is non-application of mind on the part of detaining authority as detenu was in police custody when the impugned order of detention was passed and hence, in view of the judgment rendered in Amritlal (supra), the continued detention of the detenu is illegal and the same cannot be sustained.

5. The petition is allowed. The impugned order of detention dated 15-4-2004 passed against the detenu Ramaram Muknaram Luhar is hereby quashed and set aside. The detenu is ordered to be set at liberty forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule is made absolute accordingly. Direct service is permitted.
